MONASTIR THREATENED

Important City Expected to Surrender
Shortly—Serbians Still Holding Babuna Pass—German Drive Gains.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 17.—The fate of the Serbian army may be only a matter of hours. Monastir, in south-west Serbia, is reported to be in such a perilous position, that the consular officials have departed from the city.
From the various conflicting reports which have reached the public the following apparently may be deduced
as facts:

The Bulgarians have taken Krusevo and are six miles west of Perpetua. Thus the southern Serbian army and its Franco-British allies
are confronted with the imminent peril
of an outflanking movement.

Tetovo is in the hands of the Bulgarians.
The fate of the Serbians holding Babuna Pass is more obscure. One report states that the pass has been forced. It seems certain that the defenders are at least threatened seriously so that their positions soon may be untenable.

With Krusovo and Babuna in the hands of the invaders, the fate of Perpetua will be sealed and the road to Monastir opened.

Claim Success Over Slavs.
Along the eastern front interest centers on the attempted recrossing
of the Sava where the Austrians and Germans claim an important success.
Petrograd reports merely admit Austro-German occupation of the village of Podolac, about five miles from the river, and a slight advance east of that place. It is asserted the advantage gained by the Teutonic forces
in this region is due to the arrival of reinforcements from other sections of the eastern front and heavy artillery brought up by railroads.

From the conflicting reports it may be seen that the east bank of the Sava is held by the Russians, while the battle for the crossing is still undecided.

Reports from the western front indicate that the military activities
there are limited to rather general artillery exchanges.

Serb Attempts Fail.
Berlin, Nov. 17.—Attempts of the Serbians to check the Austro-German drive have again failed. The war office announced today. More than two thousand Serbians were captured yesterday.

Serbs Hold Babuna Pass.
London, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Reuters' telegraph correspondent at Athens says according to information received there from Saloniki the Serbians are still holding Babuna Pass.
The dispatch adds that the message from Saloniki to Athens was filed, however,
in question.

Desperate battles continue between the Serbians and Bulgarians in the Tetovo district, the correspondent
telegraphs. "Reinforcements are continually arriving on both sides, which show the capital importance attached to this point by both sides. The Bulgarians are said to be carrying out the movement intended to turn the Serbian positions at Babuna Pass and reach Perpetua."

In the Corna river region the French vigorously repelled all Bulgarian attacks, and the Bulgarians lost heavily.

Scores Serbian Expedition.
Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 17.—
Continuing his criticism of the Anglo-
French operations in the Balkans, Major Morabit, the military critic, says
in the Telegraph:

"From a military point of view never before has an expeditionary army which came over the sea and relied on an insecure base for its operations,
run such risks."

He regards the situation as hopeless
for the allies even if Italy is able to send 150,000 troops to the Balkans,
and declares the destruction of Serbia
will only be somewhat delayed.

Montenegrins Repulse Attacks.
Paris, Nov. 17.—An official Montenegrin report received in Paris today
states:

"The enemy continued to make violent attack on all fronts on November 15. He was repulsed, sustaining heavy losses. A Montenegrin division of the Sanjak army captured an entire company of Austrian infantry, including the officers."

French Dispatch.
Paris, Nov. 17.—"Our expedition in the Balkans is reaching a critical stage," telegraphs the correspondent
at Saloniki, Greece, of the Journal, under date of Sunday. He adds:

"The enemy's appeals by competent personalities, our reinforcements
are not anything like the number required. Our enemies have decided to nip in the bud at any cost our offensive in the east, and are prepared to resort to any means to obtain the necessary assistance."

"I hope that the formula is well understood."
"Serbian resistance is weakening
daily. The defenders of Babuna pass will soon be surrounded and the road to Perpetua and Monastir will then be thrown wide open to the Bulgarians."

ports from German sources forward-

HOW WOMAN HAS SUFFERED IN THE WAR

A ruined home still occupied near the battle line in France.

One of the most remarkable features of civilian life in France is the way the people stick to their homes in spite of the ravages of war. At Carency and Loos, after the recent terrible fighting, people were found clinging to their homes to the last, though the walls had tumbled about their ears, and utter desolation was spread around.

CLEVELAND HUN
DENIES CHARGES
OF COUNTRYMANDisputes He Offered Bribe But Says
Accuser Offered One of Six Thousand Dollars.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Cleveland, O., Nov. 17.—Albert Henry, Hungarian labor leader and adviser, charged yesterday by Louis Loeb, also a Hungarian, and who is city immigration inspector, with having solicited a bribe of $6,000 to end
the munitions strike of Hungarian machinists at the Theodore Kuntz automobile plant here, to be appear before Mayor Newton D. Baker late today to defend and deny the charges.
Henry resigned the presidency of the Hungarian local No. 1879 Carriage and Automobile Workers' Union, and the chairmanship of the committee handling the Kuntz strike, after Loeb's
charges were made public yesterday.

In a statement today Henry denied
he solicited a bribe and charged Loeb offered the money. Loeb's charges against Henry came when the mayor
called upon him as city immigration officer to explain his activity in the strike. Loeb said he was trying to trap Henry into an offer to "sell out"
the strikers, and that he believed Henry in his strike leadership capacity
was acting in collusion with Austro-Hungarian officials in this country.

FOR HAND GRENADES

French Government Fails to Find American Concern That Will Undertake the Task.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 17.—Agents of the French government have been trying for several days to place an order
here for nine million hand grenades,
but it is said by steel men today that they have met with little success.
Only the shells were wanted as they were to be loaded in France, but manufacturers who have never made that sort of thing did not care to experiment at this time. More foreign agents are now in the Pittsburgh district trying to buy steel products than at any other time in the history of the city.

No Report from Penfield.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Nov. 17.—A partial list giving 103 names of survivors of the Italian steamship Ancona, which was sunk in the Mediterranean last week, was received today by the line's local agent.

Today's message is the first word
regarding survivors received by them from the home office at Naples. The latest figures received in New York place the number saved at 299 out of 107 passengers and crew aboard the vessel.

No Word from Penfield.
Washington, Nov. 17.—Detailed information concerning the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, was awaited today by administration officials from the Austrian government through Ambassador Penfield at Vienna.

POSTMASTER'S AID
FIRED; ENTIRE HELP
OF OFFICE STRIKESAssistant Discharged and Clerks and Carriers Precipitate General Walkout.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Fairmont, W. Va., Nov. 17.—Twenty-five clerks and carriers in the postoffice here, practically the entire force,
struck this morning as a protest, it was said, against the discharge of W.
H. Brand, assistant postmaster, and three other employees. The handling of the mails is seriously hampered.
The strike was reported to the postoffice department at Washington by Postmaster Charles H. Manley.
Brand, who was connected with the postoffice for seventeen years, was recently discharged on the charge that he had given assistance to applicants
in civil service examination. Postmaster Manley is a democrat, while the majority of the striking clerks and carriers are republicans.

Postmaster Manley was compelled to close the office and bring the postal service of the city to a standstill when he discovered he could not open the safe. He stated that every striking employee last night sent his resignation by mail to the department in Washington.

RUMANIA MAKES A
DECIDED WAR MOVEIssues Orders That All War Munitions
Be Taken Over by Authorities
At Once.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Milan, Italy, Nov. 17.—A dispatch
from Bucharest to the Corriere della Sera says that the official journal
there has published a decree authorizing the minister of war to requisition immediately all things and materials necessary to the national defense.
The articles enumerated are: wheat, pork, medicine, cloth, machines for military supplies, craft of all kinds for river traffic, railway materials and combustibles. This is taken, says the newspaper, as indication that Rumania sees the impossibility of maintaining her neutrality much longer.

PITCHER SERIOUSLY INJURED[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Pittsburgh, Nov. 17.—It became known here today that James Shaw,
a pitcher of the Washington club of the American league, was probably fatally injured yesterday while hunting in West Moreland County. Shaw and a companion were making their way through a wood when Shaw's gun accidentally discharged as he climbed over a fence. The charge entered his neck. He was taken to a farm house nearby and then brought to a hospital
here.MYSTERIOUS BALLOON FOUND

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, Nov. 17.—A telegram received by a Midland, Minnesota, paper today told of the finding of an old balloon near there. The telegram follows:

"Dear hunters in woods here found an old balloon believed to have ascended in St. Louis many months ago.
Died over a week when it was found.
No one ever saw a balloon

KITCHENER MAY HELP

King Constantine Seeks Conference
With British Secretary for War Which May Result in An Understanding.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 17.—The Greek government appears to be adopting a less uncompromising attitude, says the Athena correspondent of Reuters Telegram company. It is believed to be seeking a satisfactory solution to the question as to its attitude toward the allies' troops which might take refuge
in Greek territory, although it hesitates to make a declaration in the form demanded by the entente powers.

Asks to See Kitchener.
The correspondent says King Constantine has expressed a desire to see Earl Kitchener, British secretary
for war, who is now in the near east,
and discuss the situation with him
from a military standpoint.

The diplomatic corps has gone from Monastir to Florina, just across the border in northern Greece.
While the military situation becomes darker from the standpoint of the entente allies, the diplomatic phase of their near eastern venture is somewhat more favorable. Greece is giving some indication that she is struck by a solution of the problem,
which would be presented if entente
troops should take refuge on Grecian territory.

Greek Ships Detained.
It is clear that the entente powers are bringing considerable pressure to bear on Greece, not the least of which is England's detention in home ports
of a fleet of Greek merchantmen.
Greek shipping is making enormous profits out of the war, and even a temporary check of its activity would mean a great loss.

WILSON ADMONISHES
GOVERNOR OF UTAHJ. W. W. Murderer to Die Friday Unless Executive Grants Stay of Sentence—Charge Trial Unfair.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 17.—President Wilson today urged Governor Spry of Utah to reconsider the case of Joseph Hillstrom, a Swedish citizen sentenced to death next Friday for murder. The president sent to Governor Spry the following telegram:

"I am unable to see the wisdom of the importance of the case, I again venture to urge upon your excellency the justice and advisability of a thorough reconsideration of the case of Joseph Hillstrom."

Hillstrom is an I. W. W. worker, in whose behalf the president appealed to Governor Spry at the request of the Swedish ministry several weeks ago
on the ground that Hillstrom had not had a fair trial. The prisoner was reprieved, but eventually sentenced. A few days ago Mrs. J. S. Cram and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn of New York
again urged the president to ask Governor Spry to intervene. The American Federation of Labor in convention at San Francisco, also asked clemency for Hillstrom.

This Morning.

Tuskegee, Ala., Nov. 17.—Simplicity marked the funeral of Booker T. Washington, noted negro educator, race leader and statesman, which took place
this morning at Tuskegee Institute, which he had made famous and which has taken an important part in the elevation of the negro race.

Booker T. Washington.

Fully 8,000 people came to Tuskegee
to pay the last tribute of respect to Dr. Washington, only 2,500 of whom could get into the chapel.
Prominent men from all walks of life—white and black—attended the services. Burial was in the institute grounds.

LIFE OF DOG SAVED
BY SOCIETY WOMENLake Forest Women Came to the Aid of Dog Which Police Were Ordered to Shoot.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Nov. 17.—"Binkey" Grannis, a year old Airedale terrier, belonging to Mr. B. Granis, Lake Forest, Ill., man, alive today, but he is indebted for the circumstance to the efforts of a dozen society women who appeared as "character" witnesses for him, at a trial before Mayor William MacFarland last night.

"Binkey" was put on trial in the Lake Forest village hall, charged with having bitten Helen Morten, ten-year old daughter of George A. Morten, and with having snarled at other children. This action brought out the fact that he enjoys rare popularity in Lake Forest's exclusive society colony.

Mrs. Keene Addington, wife of the attorney, was among those who rushed to the terrier's rescue.

"I am so sure of that he has the sweetest of dispositions," she testified before Mayor Lewis.

Among "Binkey's" other witnesses were Mrs. Charles Dwyer, Mrs. I.
Cunha, and Mrs. Harold Bryant.
Mayor Lewis ordered the dog court-martialed yesterday on strength of various complaints received. After all the testimony was in, he told Mr.
Granis the dog would be given four eight hours to "get out of town," if he remains he will be shot. Today it was said "Binkey" probably would be exiled.

UNION MEN STRIKE
AT MADISON PLANTOne Hundred and Fifty Employees of Steinle Turret Machine Company
Quit—Labor Trouble Cause.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Nov. 17.—About 150
employees of the Steinle Turret Machine company have gone on a strike.
The union men declare they were locked out. Others declare they acted on their own initiative. Following are the demands which have been made upon the company:

An eight-hour day.
Time and a half for over-time.
Double time for Sundays.
In the event that these demands are not acquiesced in union officials say that a general strike will be called.
Pickets have already been placed on duty.

"We will not stop running," said George A. Steinle today. "I am a machinist myself and will keep the factory going if I have to work alone."

It is said here that the company
was working on war orders and that this is the busiest season of the year.
Turret machines used to manufacture shells are being made at a rate of about twelve a month. The recent fires at Bethlehem steel works destroyed about thirty of these machines,
manufactured by the Steinle company
and it is necessary to replace them, besides keep up with the regular work.

ARMY AVIATORS TO

Fort Sill, Nov. 17.—Fort Sill was bustling with activity today in preparation for the departure of the first aerial squadron of the United States army which tomorrow morning will fly from its temporary home to its new station at San Antonio, Tex.

The flight originally was scheduled to start on November 20, but the weather and the fact that everything was in readiness at San Antonio caused a change in plans. Six aeroplanes will make the journey.

CONSENT OF MOTHER
TO LET INFANT DIEOperation Would Save Life of Crippled Babe, But Would Not Prevent Deformity or Imbecility.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Nov. 17.—From the lips of the mother, Mrs. Anna Bollinger, came the tragic story of her consent
to let her six day old baby boy, deformed body and mind, die so that the infant, if it lived, would not be a burden to the world.

The mother, confined to her bed in the German-American hospital, agreed with Dr. H. Haiselden, head of the hospital staff, to sacrifice the child
when a simple operation would assure its life. The infant, if it lived, would grow to be a mental and perhaps moral defective, in the opinion of the surgeon. He, therefore, with the consent of the child's parents, declined to perform the operation.
Death is expected to take the infant
within forty-eight hours.

Mother Gives Consent.
"It is not heartless of me," Mrs.
Bollinger said today. "I love my poor, little deformed one, as I love my three other healthy children. But the doctor told me it would be a cripple
all its life—probably an imbecile and possibly a criminal. With breaking heart I gave my consent to its death.
Left to itself, it has no chance to live.
I consented to let nature take its course."

"No one need to think me a cruel
or unmotherly mother. I am doing what I believe is right. I am doing what I believe is right. If there is law to force a surgeon to perform an operation, when his conscience tells him that operation would be morally wrong, then let them bring that law
to bear."

The baby, born after its mother had been seriously ill with typhoid fever,
came into the world last Friday.
This illness, Dr. Haiselden accounts for its deformity.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chippewa Falls, Nov. 17.—Last night
a three-room settlers' log cabin was destroyed by fire burning to death
John Hunner, 68, and Miss Amanda Ameson, 23. Mrs. Andrew Hunner, the owner, and her 15-year-old son escaped. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. Miss Ameson was pulled out of the conflagration
but rushed excitedly into the burning house to secure clothing and was cremated.

The house burned so quickly the aged man burned in his bed.
Mrs. Hunner's husband was killed
two weeks ago in an automobile accident. She and her son walked a mile barefooted in the snow for aid.

Half a Million More.

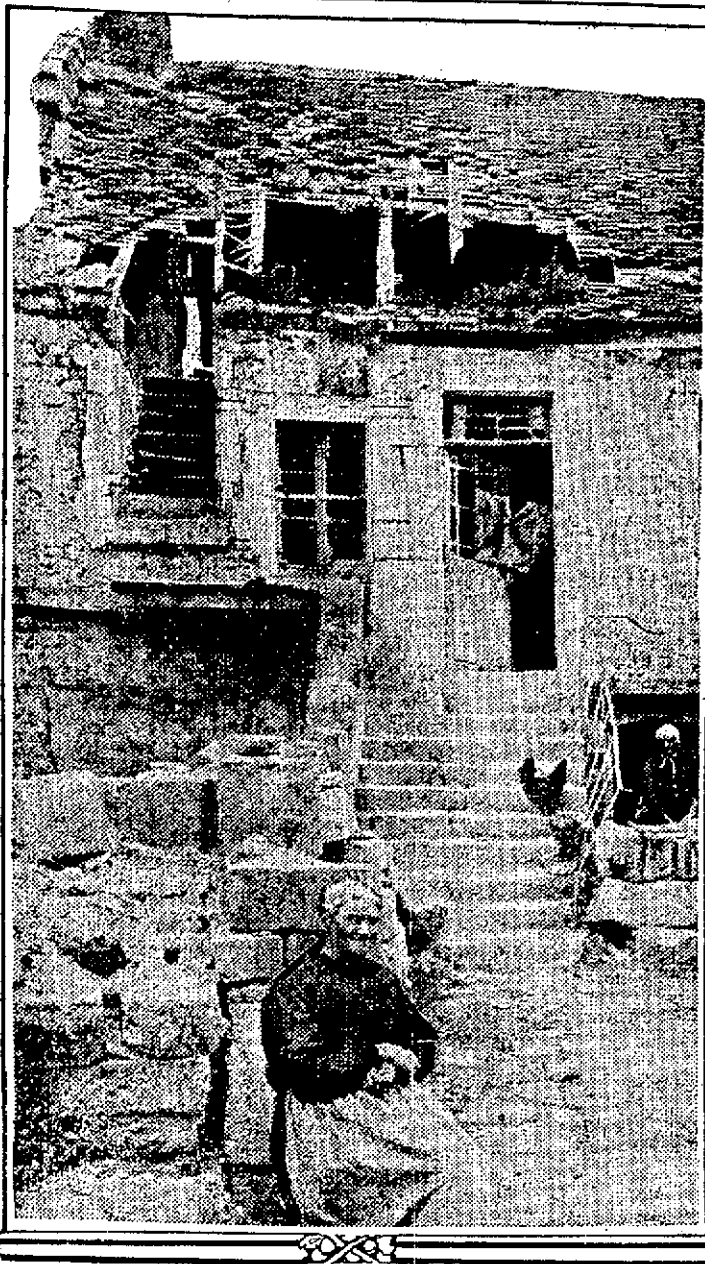

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Morris, Ill., Nov. 17.—With a demand for the conviction of C. B. Mun-day, and the application of the maximum penalty of five years in the penitentiary, State's Attorney Hayes today finished his closing argument in the trial of the former vice-president of the State Savings Bank and Savings bank of Chicago. "A fine will be merely a license to go out and steal
half a million more," said Hayes.
"Give him his punishment behind the bars, a lesson he will not forget. The only question that confronts me is whether a jury is afraid to convict a millionaire."

HOW WOMAN HAS SUFFERED IN THE WAR

A ruined home still occupied near the battle line in France.

One of the most remarkable features of civilian life in France is the way the people stick to their homes in spite of the ravages of war. At Carancy and Loos, after the recent terrible fighting, people were found clinging to their homes to the last, though the walls had tumbled about their ears, and utter desolation was spread around.

OF COUNTRYMAN

Disputes He Offered Bribe But Says
Accuser Offered One of Six
Thousand Dollars.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Cleveland, O., Nov. 17.—Albert Henzel, Hungarian labor leader and adviser, charged yesterday by Louis Loeb, also a Hungarian, and who is city immigration inspector, with having solicited a bribe of $6,000 to end the munitions strike of Hungarian automobile plant here, was to appear before Mayor Newton D. Baker late today to defend and deny the charges. Henzel resigned the presidency of the Hungarian local No. 1879 Carriage and Automobile Workers' Union, and the chairmanship of the committee holding the Kuntz strike, after Loeb's charges were made public yesterday. In a statement today Henzel denied he solicited a bribe and charged Loeb offered the money. Loeb's charges against Henzel came when the mayor called upon him as city immigration officer to explain his activity in the Kuntz strike and his efforts to trap Henzel into an offer to "sell out" the strikers, and that he believed Henzel in his strike leadership capacity had been underhanded by Austro-Hungarian officials in this country.

French Government Fails to Find American Concern That Will Undertake the Task.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Pittsburgh, Pa., Nov. 17.—Agents of the French government have been trying for several days to place an order here for nine million hand grenades, but it is said by steel men today that they have met with little success. Only the shells are wanted, as they were to be loaded in France, but manufacturers who have never made that sort of thing did not care to experiment at this time. More foreign agents are being sent to the Pittsburgh district trying to buy steel products than at any other time in the history of the city.

GET PARTIAL LIST
ANCONA SURVIVORS

Company's Office in New York City Received List of 103 Names—
No Return from Penfield.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Nov. 17.—A partial list giving 103 names of survivors of the Italian liner Ancona, which was sunk in the Mediterranean last week, was received today by the line's local agents.

Penfield's message is the first word regarding survivors received by them from the home office at Naples. The latest figures received in New York place the number saved at 249 out of 607 passengers and crew aboard the vessel.

No Word from Penfield.
Washington, Nov. 17.—Detailed information concerning the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona, was awaited today by administration officials from the Austrian government through Ambassador Penfield at Vienna.

A FEW HOURS
SERBS' FATE

INVASERS CONTINUE IN ASCENDANCY WITH SERBIAN ARMY IN ITS LAST STAND.

Important City Expected to Surrender Shortly—Serbians Still Holding Babuna Pass—German Drive Gains.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 17.—The fate of the Serbian army may be only a matter of hours. Monastir, in southwest Serbia, is reported to be in such a perilous position, that the consular officials have departed from the city. From the various conflicting reports which have reached the public the following apparently may be deduced as facts:
The Bulgarians have taken Krusovo and are six miles west of Perlepe. Thus the southern Serbian army and its Franco-British allies are confronted with the imminent peril of an outflanking movement.

Tetovo is in the hands of the Bulgarians.
The fate of the Serbians holding Babuna Pass is more obscure. One report states that the pass has been forced. It seems certain that the defenders are at least threatened seriously so that their positions soon may be untenable.

With Krusovo and Babuna in the hands of the invaders, the fate of Perlepe will be sealed and the road to Monastir opened.

Claim Success Over Slavs.
Along the eastern front interest centers on the attempted recrossing of the Sava where the Austrians and Germans claim an important success. Petrograd reports merely admit Austro-German occupation of the village of Pocajec, about five miles from the river and a slight advance east of that place. It is asserted that the advantage gained by the Teutonic forces in this region is due to the arrival of reinforcements from other sections of the eastern front.

From the conflicting reports it may be seen that the east bank of the Sava is held by the Russians, while the battle for the crossing is still undecided.

Reports from the western front indicate that the military activities there are limited to rather general artillery exchanges.

Serb Attempts Fail.
Berlin, Nov. 17.—Attempts of the Serbians to check the Austro-German drive have again failed, the war office announced today. More than two thousand Serbians were captured yesterday.

Serbs Hold Babuna Pass.
London, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Reuters' telegraph correspondent at Athens says according to information received there from Saloniki the Serbians are still holding Babuna Pass. The report, which the correspondent said he had received from a reliable source, is not confirmed.

Reinforcements are continually arriving on both sides, which show the capital importance attached to this point by both sides. The Bulgarians are still carrying on the movement intended to turn the Serbian positions at Babuna Pass and reach Perlepe.

If the movement succeeds, the Serbians will be cut off from Babuna Pass, but the operation is considered hazardous for Bulgaria in consequence of lack of practicable roads. The troops are leaving Saloniki daily for the Serbian front.

In the Corna river region the French vigorously repelled all Bulgarian attacks, and the Bulgarians lost heavily.

Scores Serbian Expedition.
Amsterdam, via London, Nov. 17.—Continuing his criticism of the Anglo-French operations in the Balkans, Major Morrell, the military critic, says in the Tagblatt:

"From a military point of view never before has an expeditionary army which came over the sea and relied on an insecure base for its operations, run such risks."

He regards the situation as hopeless for the allies even if Italy is able to send 150,000 troops to the Balkans, and declares the destruction of Serbia will only be somewhat delayed.

Montenegro Repulse Attacks.
Paris, Nov. 17.—An official Montenegro report received in Paris today follows:

"The enemy continued to make violent attack on all fronts on November 15. He was repulsed, sustaining heavy losses. The Serbian army captured an entire company of Austrian infantry, including the officers."

French Dispatch.
Paris, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from the Balkans reaching a critical stage, telegraphs the correspondent at Saloniki, Greece, of the Journal, under date of Sunday. He adds:

"The situation is not anything like the number required. Our enemies have decided to nip in the bud at any cost offensive in the east, and are prepared to resort to any means to obtain the necessary assistance."

"I hope that the formula is well understood."

Serbian resistance is weakening daily. The defenders of Babuna pass will soon be surrounded and the road to Perlepe and Monastir will then be thrown wide open to the Bulgarians."

FOR RETREAT

GOVERNMENT ADOPTS MORE FAVORABLE ATTITUDE WITH REGARD TO ALLIES' WITHDRAWAL.

KITCHENER MAY HELP

King Constantine Seeks Conference With British Secretary for War Which May Result in An Understanding.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 17.—The Greek government appears to be adopting a less uncompromising attitude, says the Athens correspondent of Reuters' Telegram company. It is believed to be seeking a satisfactory solution of the question as to its attitude toward the allies' troops which might take refuge in Greek territory, although it hesitates to make a declaration in the form demanded by the entente powers.

Asks to See Kitchener.
The correspondent says King Constantine has expressed a desire to see Earl Kitchener, British secretary for war, who is now in the near east and discuss the situation with him from a military standpoint.

The diplomatic corps has gone from Monastir to Thessalonica just across the border in northern Greece.

While the military situation becomes darker from the standpoint of the entente allies, the diplomatic phase of their near eastern venture is somewhat more favorable. Greece is giving some indication that she is seeking a solution of the problem, which would be presented if entente troops should take refuge on Grecian territory.

Greek Ships Detained.
It is clear that the entente powers are bringing considerable pressure to bear on Greece, not the least of which is England's detention in home ports of a fleet of Greek merchantmen. Greek shipping the making enormous profits out of the war, and even a temporary check of its activity would mean a great loss.

WILSON ADMONISHES
GOVERNOR OF UTAH

J. W. Murderer to Die Friday Unless Executive Grants Stay of Sentence—Charge Trial Unfair.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Nov. 17.—President Wilson today urged Governor Spry of Utah to reconsider the case of Joseph Hillstrom, a Swedish citizen sentenced to death next Friday for murder. The president sent to Governor Spry the following telegram:

"I am deeply grieved by the sentence of death next Friday for murder, the case of Joseph Hillstrom. I am sure that the sentence is unjust and that the trial was unfair."

Hillstrom is an I. W. worker, in whose behalf the president appealed to Governor Spry at the request of the Swedish ministry several weeks ago on the ground that Hillstrom had not had a fair trial. The prisoner was reprieved, but eventually sentenced. A few days ago Mrs. M. E. Cram and Elizabeth Gurley Flynn of New York again urged the president to ask Governor Spry to intervene. The American Federation of Labor in convention at San Francisco, also asked clemency for Hillstrom.

DECIDED WAR MOVE

Issues Orders That All War Munitions Be Taken Over By Authorities At Once

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Milan, Italy, Nov. 17.—A dispatch from Bucharest to the Corriere della Sera says that the official journal there has published a decree authorizing the minister of war to requisition immediately all things and materials necessary to the national defense. The articles enumerated were: rifles, machine guns, small arms, military supplies, craft of all kinds for river traffic, railway materials and combustibles. This is taken, says the newspaper, as an indication that Rumania sees the impossibility of maintaining her neutrality much longer.

PITCHER SERIOUSLY INJURED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Pittsburgh, Nov. 17.—It became known here today that James Shaw, a pitcher of the Washington club of American league, was probably fatally injured yesterday while hunting for West Morland County. Shaw and a companion were making their way through a wood when Shaw's gun accidentally discharged as he climbed over a fence. The charge entered his neck. He was taken to a farm house nearby and then brought to a hospital here.

MYSTERIOUS BALLOON FOUND IN THE MINNESOTA WOODS

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
St. Louis, Nov. 17.—A telegram received by a Midwestern Minnesota paper today told of the finding of an old balloon near there. The telegram follows:

"Dear hunters in woods here found an old balloon believed to have ascended in St. Louis many months ago. Did you ever lose a balloon?"

St. Louis aeronauts say no balloon was ever lost in a flight from St. Louis, but seven years ago a balloon ascended from Chicago and was lost. It was supposed to have landed in Canada.

Booker T. Washington.

Fully 8,000 people came to Tuskegee to pay the last tribute of respect to Dr. Washington, only 2,500 of whom could get into the chapel.

Most of the men from all walks of life—white and black—attended the services. Burial was in the institute grounds.

LIFE OF DOG SAVED
BY SOCIETY WOMEN

Lake Forest Women Came to the Aid of Dog Which Police Were Ordered to Shoot.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Nov. 17.—"Binky" Gran, a year old Alsatian terrier, belonging to Uri B. Granis, Lake Forest club man, is alive today, but he is indebted for his life to the efforts of a dozen society women who appeared as "character" witnesses for him, at a trial before Mayor William H. Dwyer last night.

"Binky" was put on trial in the Lake Forest village hall, charged with having bitten Helen Morton, ten year old daughter of George Morton, and with having snapped at other children. This action brought out the fact that he enjoys rare popularity in Lake Forest's exclusive society colony.

Mrs. Keene Addington, wife of the attorney, was among those who rushed to the terrier's rescue.

"I can safely say that he has the sweetest of dispositions," she testified before Mayor Dwyer.

Among "Binky's" other witnesses were Mrs. Charles Dwyer, Mrs. I. Cuddey, and Mrs. Harold Bryant.

"Binky" was charged with the death of a child, but the court, after a long hearing, acquitted him on all charges.

AT MADISON PLANT

One Hundred and Fifty Employees of Stearns Turret Machine Company Quit—Labor Trouble Cause.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., Nov. 17.—About 150 employees of the Stearns Turret Machine company have gone on strike. The union men declare they were locked out. Others declare they acted on their own initiative. Following are the demands which have been made upon the company:

An eight-hour day.
Time and a half for overtime.
Double time for Sundays.

In the event that these demands are not acquiesced in union officials say that a general strike will be called. Pickets have already been placed on duty.

"We will not stop running," said George A. Stearns today. "I am a machinist myself and will keep the factory going if I have to work alone."

It is said here that the company was working on war orders and that this is the busiest season of the year. Turret machines used to manufacture shells are being made at a rate of about twelve a day.

The Stearns Turret Machine Co. is a subsidiary of the Stearns Manufacturing Co., which is a part of the Stearns Corporation, a large manufacturing company with headquarters at San Antonio, Tex.

The flight originally was scheduled to start on November 20, but the weather and the fact that everything was in readiness at San Antonio caused a change in plans. Six airplanes will make the journey.

Operation Would Save Life of Crippled Babe, But Would Not Prevent Deformity or Imbecility.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chicago, Nov. 17.—From the lips of the mother, Mrs. Anna Bollinger, came the tragic story of her consent to let her six day old baby boy, deformed in body and mind, die so that the infant, if it lived, would not be a burden to the world.

The mother, confined to her bed in the German-American hospital, agreed with Dr. H. J. Halseiden, chief of the hospital staff, to sacrifice the child, when a simple operation would assure its life. The infant, if it lived, would grow to be a mental and perhaps moral defective, in the opinion of the surgeon. He was therefore, with the consent of the child's parents, declined to perform the operation.

Death is expected to take the infant within forty-eight hours.

Mother's Consent.
"It is not heartless of me," Mrs. Bollinger said today. "I love the poor, little deformed one, as I love my three other healthy children. But the doctor told me it would be a cripple all its life—probably an imbecile and possibly a criminal. With breaking heart I gave my consent to its death. Left to itself, it has no chance to live. I consented to let nature take its course."

"No one need to think me a cruel or unnatural mother. My heart is full of mother's love for all my children. But this poor little one if allowed to live would be only a burden to itself. Its life would be barren and useless. It, as the doctor says, one of nature's blunders, and I am willing that nature should correct its error by my baby's death."

I am satisfied that I am doing right. I believe and think so. My mother had thirteen children and I know, she, too, would approve my course."

Ready to Face Criticism.
"I have no doubt that I shall be called a murderer," she said, "but the infant's death is a question between me and my conscience. I am doing what I believe is right. It is a law to force a surgeon to perform an operation, when his conscience tells him that operation would be morally wrong, then let them bring that law to bear."

The baby, born after its mother had been seriously ill with typhoid fever, came into the world last Friday.

Dr. Halseiden accounts for its deformity.

TWO BURN TO DEATH
IN LOG CABIN FIRE

Aged Man and Young Woman Meet Death in Flames Last Night at Chippewa Falls.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Chippewa Falls, Nov. 17.—Last night a three-room settlers' log cabin was destroyed by fire burning to death John Hunner, 65, and Miss Amanda Amerson, 28.

Mrs. A. M. Amerson, the owner, and her 15-year-old son escaped. The fire was caused by a defective chimney. Miss Amerson was pulled out of the conflagration but rushed excitedly into the burning house to secure clothing and was cremated.

The house burned so quickly the aged man, who was in his bed, was killed two weeks ago in an automobile accident. She and her son walked a mile barefooted in the snow for aid.

Thirty Surgeons of Harvard Unit Depart From New York Today for Europe.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Nov. 17.—Thirty surgeons, including specialists in various branches of practice, and thirty nurses, sailed today for Europe on the steamship Norddeutscher Lloyd, as second Harvard units to nurse wounded soldiers. Dr. David Cheever, in charge of the unit, said it would replace in part members of the first unit, who went abroad last summer to serve three months. Some of the earlier volunteers, he said, would remain with the company, but congress, submitted by the last congress, was intended to turn the Serbian positions at Babuna Pass and reach Perlepe.

The party probably will be stationed at a base hospital in France.

Great Britain Fears That German Agents Are Operating to Furnish Supplies to Submarines.

Paris, Nov. 17.—Great Britain has requested the Spanish government to keep a strict watch along its coast line, especially at Morocco, to prevent violations of neutrality by German agents who are believed to be supplying submarines with fuel and food at night, says the Journal's Madrid correspondent.

RACINE BANK PAYS
SECOND DIVIDENDAndrew Pond, Formerly of This City,
Is in Charge of the Work of Liquidation.

Announcement is made that the Commercial and Savings Bank of Racine, which went into liquidation on November 28th, 1914, has declared a second dividend to depositors, and the greater portion of the checks amounting to $370,243.36 have been mailed to the depositors who suffered by the bank failure. Andrew Pond, a former resident of this city, is in Racine in charge of the work, and expects to have there for at least two years before the business is entirely closed.

The last dividend of 16 2/3 per cent, computed with the first dividend of 8 1/3 per cent paid on March 10, 1915, brings the total payment up to 50 per cent of the bank's liabilities.

Officials Have Done Well. This is considered to be unusually good when the state of business during the liquidation is taken into consideration. The individual payment in many cases has been small, the total collected necessary to make these dividend payments represents a great amount of work. Every consideration possible has been shown the holders of the bank in the collection of assets, and in but few cases has collection by law been resorted to.

The order by the circuit court making this second payment possible was signed on November 8th, 1915, and the bank officials have been working overtime in order to make out and send the checks to the many depositors of the failed institution. The two dividends bring the total money paid out up to $1,198,870.57, or exactly half of the bank's deposits.

When the sum of $165,071.84 in deposits that were owed by loans is added to this sum it makes the total collected within the year $1,271,942.40. The previous payment of 33 1/3 per cent amounted in all to $736,621.21.

Orfordville News

Orfordville, Nov. 16.—There will be a basket social and program at school township, which is three miles south-west of here, on Friday evening, November the nineteenth. Ladies are invited to bring trimmed baskets containing lunch for two. An excellent program has been prepared for the occasion. Cora Thorson is the teacher.

August Weiberg transacted business in Beloit on Monday.

Dr. Forbush is having the basement of his residence treated with a coat of waterproof cement in the hope of keeping the water out. It is to be regretted that there is no feasible way by which the village can be drained.

H. N. Wagley received a car of shelled corn on Tuesday morning. The same was disposed of to the farmers from the local siding the same day.

The chicken pie supper given at the opera house by the Ladies' Aid of the Social Center was well attended and a success from every point of view. The program that was rendered after supper was greatly enjoyed.

The special school meeting held at the opera house on Monday was voted to authorize the board to borrow an additional two thousand dollars to complete the building. For the past two weeks there has been a lot of talk about the part of a few and prevent the authorization of the loan. They were, however, in the minority and now with funds sufficient the board has hope to have the building ready for occupancy in a short time.

THE SEAMAN'S LAW.

Really there is nothing that has created more of a general uproar the nation through than the passage of the seaman's law. "Down Comes the Law," says Leslie's Weekly, and then it continues to explain that the new seaman's law is the closest thing to the law of a nation playing directly into the hands of its competitors.
While every other nation is busy subsidizing its merchant fleets, we are made ridiculous in the eyes of the world by legislating our ships off the seas so that even our letters to Japan must go in a vessel subsidized by that government. It must have humiliated every American to read in the news
dispatches recently of the shipment
from Philadelphia of a cargo of steel
for Russia in a Japanese steamer!

"The seaman's law has made Japan's control of the Pacific complete.
It forces from the sea, as Congressman Humphrey well said, the few American officers and sailors remaining and leaves without a single ship
fit for a transport or naval auxiliary.
And this at a time when the nation
is calling for preparedness for war.
One lumber mill in Washington has just been notified of the loss of a customer that bought of it for the foreign trade $100,000 worth of lumber per month. He has transferred his orders to British Columbia, where he can use ships in his cargoes that are not subject to our seaman's law. There seems to have been too much reason, therefore, for the prediction made by
J. J. Donovan, president of the Pacific Logging Congress, in his recent address before that body at San Francisco, when he said: 'Let no grandilo-quent boasting of dreamer or demagogue deceive you. Our flag is gone from the Pacific. It will go from the Atlantic as soon as the great war ends unless we radically change our laws along lines which will enable us to compete with the fleets of maritime nations.'

"An eminent foreign writer years ago sought to impress upon his countrymen the need of developing its sea
power and reminded them that 'a nation without navigation is a bird without wings, a stag without fangs, a tooth-
less lion, a stag on crutches, a knight
with a wooden sword, a helot and slave among mankind.'"
"Oh, for an era of constructive legislation."

The law bears the name of Wisconsin's senior senator, supposedly a republican, at least elected as such, and yet it is a democratic measure that is going to work all sorts of havoc with any plans the democrats may have for re-election of their party to power.

SLIPSHOD ADVERTISING.

A group of newspaper men got to talking the other day, about their experiences in dealing with merchants in the matter of advertising. The story was told of one merchant who used to say that it never paid for an individual merchant to advertise. He admitted that it might pay for the entire body of merchants in a town to get together and advertise so as to attract the attention of the surrounding country. But he never believed he could draw trade from less enterprising men by his own individual advertising.

A little inquiry about this man's business gave some significant facts.
In spite of his protestations, he did a very considerable amount of advertising. He made it a habit to keep a file of the home newspapers. Every week when he was taking space, he would clip out his advertisement of the previous year, or some year previous to that, make some slight changes,
and send the slightly revised old copyright notice for the current week.
He paid good money for it, too. He appreciated the value of the notice
enough so that for November, 1915,
he would want an ad written for some previous November. But that was all.

This merchant would go along from year to year, often not buying any new stock in many of his lines. He argued that the old stuff was just as good as when he bought it. Why should not the public be satisfied with it? He had a fairly good trade, in spite of his slow motion. The space
he took in the newspapers was carefully read and had some effect.
Probably a great many people were not conscious of the fact that it was old copy.

These notices missed the fundamental principle of advertising, that advertising is news, and should appeal to the public hunger for news
by telling what special values have turned up in the store. It is not surprising that he was not wholly satisfied with his results. Yet even at that, and with all his unprogressive ways, it is interesting that he did not dare to let his advertising drop, and had a blind faith that any old kind of notice would help him.

CONSTRUCTIVE WORK.

Janesville and Rock county are doing real constructive work in the line
of improving the city and county roads. Beloit leads Janesville in this direction by having laid many blocks
of improved paving this past summer,
but taking it all in all the whole county is being materially benefited by the manner in which this problem is being handled by the men in charge.
The county board selected Charles Moore as county superintendent of highways after they had previously chosen one of their own number for office only to find his election illegal.
Mr. Moore has made a most efficient official and it would have been unfortunate to have deprived the county of his services just at this time when
so much constructive work is being accomplished. The building has been a bad one for road road but much has been accomplished despite the handicaps encountered and in both the cities and county the taxpayers
have reason to compliment themselves on the constructive work that has been completed.

HOLIDAY BUYING.

The retail trade has now reached the point in the year when an unusual amount of money will be spent.
The approach of winter makes necessary the purchase of an unusual amount of regular supplies. On top of this comes the gift-buying habit.
The people who do this buying have a lot of good, hard work ahead of them in shopping. They will try to cut down the time this takes.

They take advantage of every advertisement seen in the newspapers,
to find out what merchants have the most attractive offerings. This saves an enormous amount of running around from store to store.
Advertising is always read quite as carefully as are the news columns.
At this high tide of the buying movement, it is of double interest. The merchant does not have to create a want; he finds the public all ready to buy. The people are searching through each issue of the newspapers
for the desired information, thus silently asking the merchants what they have to offer. Those who refuse to meet this desire for information in the public prints are lost in the shuffle.

There is a strong feeling among the congressmen in favor of economy
at the session that opens in December, so that every member can get more post offices and river and harbor money for his district.

About now the boarders are reminded that if they are real good,
they may get a glorious feast. Thanksgiving day consisting of cold storage
turkey, canned vegetables and stewed prunes.

The Washington congressmen must feel greatly encouraged at the advance of plenty on the days when President Wilson and Mrs. Galt are expected to attend church.

If the weather is cold at Thanksgiving time, turkeys are high because of the brisk demand; if the weather is warm, turkeys are high because they don't keep well.

The Old Sweetheart.
I used to know a little girl.
By jing, she was a peach.
But I learned to my great regret
that she was beyond my reach.
She had the softest kind of eyes,
Her figure was immense.
I wanted to wed her, but Could not stand the expense.

I was then getting six a week.
She said to run along
And try upon some other girl
My sweet and artful going.
She said that she was going to wed
some older guy who earned
A hundred dollars every month;
And so my suit she spurned.

'Twas twenty years ago that she Threw my young love away.
I never saw that girl again
Till just the other day.
She had five kids tagging her.
And wheeled two in a cart.
And didn't look much like she did
When she said we must part.

The crayon portrait fellow,
Just tags round in her wake,
Wash dishes, sweep and bake,
I guess when it is end and done,

I'm doggone glad I didn't win
That old sweetheart of mine.

A Card of Thanks.

following card of thanks:
We thank those who helped us

gave a hand at the funeral. We expect to sell off all the stock, farm machinery and household goods and

SNAP SHOTS

The man who, when he is run over,
refuses to sit down in a public place
and exhibit his bruises, generally is entitled to more credit than he gets.

Every man believes if he could get his just dues a banquet would be held in his honor.

Occasionally the women get in free.
But the men always have to pay.

Don't place too much faith in the left hind foot of a rabbit. Every rabbit has one, and you know what happens to the rabbits.

In a country neighborhood the real proud prince is the boy who has killed a wild goose.

To a man, every woman is more or less attractive. To a woman never can "see" more than one man
at a time.

Plenty of men marry homely women, but every man demands good-looking actresses.

Jasper Dillington, who, two months ago, took up the job of defending the motorcycle, already has more work than five men could do.

No other annoyance of travel equals "being entertained"
at a private house.

Eph Wiles says if it is left to him
the narrative poem will go with the descriptive music.

The women often display a fine degree of courage, but few of them are brave enough to sleep down stairs.

The Daily Novelette

On With the Play.
Neverminded Bills was a thoroughly domesticated sort of a simp, but he got along for all that. Many's the time he can be home from work in the sausage factory (for he was the head stuffer of the ninth floor) and, without a word to his wife Inkberrie,
would slip into his chair at the table,
drop up his newspaper on the butter
dish and onto the cruet, and enjoy ing genuine print butter. Yes, man's the time Neverminded did these little honey things, not to mention the lovely nonchalant manner with which he handled his wife. Since the long nose and the squint in her eye.

Then, after his meal of kraut and sausage (100 per cent off if gotten from the stadium), Never-minded would calmly state the sight of beautiful threadbare coat of Dinkelfish fur. And, seeing the action and poling it, Inkberrie would ask, "Never-minded, going out?" "Whereupon, he would reply, 'Oh, just thought I would go around to Fleece and play cards
with the boys.'"

But, this night, there was no charming, squinty Inkberrie to make him Nothing of her but a note saying she was visiting for a week.

Ab, then did Neverminded's conscience trouble him. Then, did he sigh like a sick hyena at the sight of her clothes in heaps on chairs. One gown of Steeplechase yellow trimmed with copper, especially tortured his memory. For, didn't she darn his fur socks in that gorgeous of his Ah, well! He would do better when she returned. He would never go out again, never! He would stay at home and love and abide by his pure little red Inkberrie!

His! A door bangs! Now it is bump!
Inkberrie has returned!
"Neverminded, going out?"
"Oh, I thought I'd go 'round to Fleece's and play cards with the boys."

BRITAIN SINKING WELLS ON AN ARID ISLAND FOR OBTAINING WATER FOR MEN.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Nov. 17.—When the first trip of the first expedition landed at Lemnos, near the entrance to the Dardanelles, they were surprised to find that the island, which has an area of nearly 200 square miles and a population of 400, was practically destitute of drinking water, except for uncertain supplies from a few springs. The allied troops were supplied with mineral water sent in shipment from the generosity of a French woman in Marseilles.

The British authorities promptly sent to Canada for engineers, who are now engaged in sinking artesian wells which will guarantee the people of Lemnos a reliable and abundant water supply.

MORE SUGAR PRODUCED IN ROMANY THIS YEAR
THAN CAN BE CONSUMED

Berlin, Nov. 17.—More sugar is produced in Germany each year than it can consume. Last year's crop of sugar-beets was unusually large, and the present crop is said to be even well, but the price of sugar has nevertheless increased more than twenty-five per cent. In connection with this state of affairs, a letter to the Lokai Anzeiger declares that the country's largest sugar refinery has, this year, declared a dividend of twenty per cent against last year.

He Removed the Danger Signal

"I suffered a long time with a few boxes of Foley Kidney Pills completely relieved me of all soreness
and pain in the back, and now I am as strong and well as ever."

One cannot help becoming nervous and feeling tired and worn out when the kidneys fail to filter and throw out of the system the poisonous waste matter that causes kidney troubles
and bladder ailments.

Backache is one of Nature's danger signals that the kidneys are clogged
up and inactive. It is usually followed by rheumatism, annoying bladder
or urinary disorders, puffy swellings under the eyes, swollen ankles and painful joints.

Foley Kidney Pills get right at the cause of trouble. They invigorate the kidneys to healthy action and when the kidneys properly perform their functions the poisonous waste matter is eliminated from the system.

BALKAN QUESTION

UNDERGOES CHANGE

OVER WAR ISSUES

Petty Inter-State Disputes Dropped

When Warring States Take Side
in the European War.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Paris, Nov. 17.—The Balkan question formerly internal with Macedonia as the chief stake, and the states ranged against each other against Turkey over this rich bone of contention, has undergone a complete change within the past few months.

Some of this Balkan issue still remains, between Bulgaria and Serbia, but it is almost lost in a far greater issue, international instead of purely internal, the two great warring elements in Europe have suddenly recognized these little Balkan states controlled the high-road from northwest Europe to the Orient—the link between Germany and Austria in the north and that vast vista of sleeping power in the southeast: Turkey and the Suez Canal, Asia Minor and the Persian gulf, and the overland route straight from Berlin to the Far East.

So that the petty Balkan disputes
which have been going on for years have suddenly merged into a great international drama, in which the Balkans are a mere incident, the supreme issues now being:

For the Quadruple Alliance to hold the Balkan states intact, as far as possible, as a solid buffer between the Austro-Germans in the north and their imperial goal in the east, Turkey, the Dardanelles, Egypt and the East.

For Austro-Germany—to divide the Balkans as much as possible, to split
the state, with a predominating
state, Bulgaria, favorable to the Austro-Germany to Turkey and the Orient.

Shift of Issue.
This shift of the Balkan issue,
making it part of a great international game instead of a petty struggle of small states, has come about within the last four months. The allied powers were slow in realizing it, and Serbia up to a point treated the question as the old first over landing in Macedonia. But all the time larger drama was setting the scenes in the Balkans and the Central Powers
to Turkey and the near East.

Each of the Balkan states has a number of issues involved in the new struggle. Some explanation of these has been gathered from official and diplomatic sources, from official and
diplomatic sources, from official and diplomatic sources, showing the respective viewpoints about as follows:

Bulgaria considers herself the aggrieved party of the Balkans. She claims to have done most of the fighting against Turkey for Macedonia, and to have received the least of the reward, the bulk going to Greece and Greece, which, Bulgaria claims,
has been gathering the Allied garrison legions and the Allied press with a view to the view of its case, showing the following bulge of the territory taken from Turkey.

Serbia with the smallest territory
before the war, received 39,000 square
kilometers, of which 15,000 were fertile, and added 1,200,000 to her population.

Greece, next smallest in area and population, gained 54,000 square kilometers, of which 23,000 were fertile,
and added 1,600,000 to her population.

Bulgaria Largest.
Bulgaria, the largest in area and population, received only 15,000 square
kilometers, of which 4,000 were fertile, and added only 400,000 to its population. Then follows this explanatory official statement:

"Is not Greece the Yes! And because of it, this is what Bulgaria demands: She is not satisfied with a division; she demands a new one;
Balkan unity in which she pays all
the expense."

Bulgaria has issued another pamphlet, printed at the royal printing establishment at Sofia, entitled, "How the Serbs Behave in Macedonia," giving detailed accounts of alleged atrocities in Serbia's part of Macedonia against priests of the Bulgarian state in the extreme. These accounts are harrowing in the extreme, alleging that in some cases Bulgarians were crucified,
other buried alive, others tortured until they died, with names and places.

The pamphlet is given as an evidence of Bulgaria's claim that her people in Macedonia are being crucified.

Another of Bulgaria's allegations is that Rumania took 3,370 square kilometers of Bulgaria's Black Sea front and she was driven back during the struggle with Turkey. The Black Sea country added 300,000 people to Rumania's population. The people are Bulgarians, according to Bulgaria, and she was driven back, and the Black Sea front lost.

Aside from these official claims,
there are reports of other aspirations
of Bulgaria. King Ferdinand is said to foresee another great Byzantine Empire in southeastern Europe, with himself as the first czar of Byzantium.
The realization of this dream would mean the absorption of the Balkan states into Bulgaria, and her evolution into an empire stretching from the Bosphorus, Cherif Pasha, the Turkish agitator, has even asserted in a recently signed article in Paris newspapers that the Balkan Turk element had agreed with Bulgaria to turn over

Constantinople to that country, rather than let it pass into the hands of the allies through their assault on the Dardanelles.

Serbia's Attitude.
Serbia's attitude in the Balkans is summed up as the staunch and loyal friend of the quadruple allies, and their chief reliance in blocking the Austro-German advance. Serbia was the first to clash with her giant neighbor to the north, Austria, and thus precipitate the European war. Serbia has always stood in the way of Austria, barring her advance southward
to the Adriatic. Serbia's first aim, therefore, is to hold what she now has
of Macedonia against the encroachments of Bulgaria, and at the same time aid the quadruple alliance by holding back the advance of Austria and Germany southward.

As to Bulgaria's claim of rights in Macedonia, and of alleged atrocities Macedonia, Serbia simply denies them. She willingly yield Macedonia to Bulgaria
while the quadruple allies were hoping thereby to win Bulgaria over to a United Balkans. But that project has passed, and Serbia is now holding on to all she possesses in Macedonia,
with the allies supporting her.

Greece's interest in the Balkan conflict are partly local, partly international. Like Serbia she is defending her part of Macedonia, particularly that near Cavella, the rich seaport on the Aegean nearest Constantinople.
The Greek legation has furnished the Associated Press with the report of Prof. Relas of the University of Lausanne to the Greek prime minister.

Macedonia's Bulgaria's claims as to mass of data that Cavella, Saloniki
and the great centers of Macedonia,
as well as the interior are overwhelmingly Greek in population, language and customs. This has been one of the chief internal points of issue, Bulgaria claiming the country to be essentially Bulgarian.

Policy of Greece.
But besides the local issue, Greece's great coast line on the Mediterranean and Aegean, and her proximity to Egypt, the Suez Canal, Turkey and the east, have inspired hopes of a greater Greece, restoring the power of ancient Greece, as one of the great powers of the world. France has looked with sympathy on these aspirations, while Bulgaria pins her faith on Germany. At the same time Italy has hopes in the eastern Mediterranean, and one of the reasons Italian troops did not join the Anglo-French landing party at Saloniki, was to avoid exciting Greece's susceptibilities that her field of expansion was being encroached upon.

Greece's harbors, notably Saloniki
and Cavella, also supply the allies
with the best strategic landing ports
for the double purpose of aiding Greece's ally, Serbia, and the greater end of throwing a barrier in front of the Austro-German advance toward Turkey. At Cavella a landing party would be within 100 miles of the Bosphorus.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Father's First Experience Is Liable to Be a Difficult One.

BY F. LEIPZIGER

GOOD NEWS

Many Janesville Readers Have Heard It and Profited Thereby.

"Good news travels fast," and the many bad back sufferers in Janesville are glad to learn where relief may be found. Many a lame, weak and aching back is bad no more, thanks to Doan's Kidney Pills. Our citizens are telling the good news of their experience with this tested remedy. Here is an example worth reading: Mrs. J. W. Morse, 206 Park St., Janesville, says: "I had severe attacks of backache and pains across my joints. My kidneys didn't act regularly. Headaches made me miserable. It didn't take Doan's Kidney Pills long to make me feel stronger and better in every way. They regulated the action of my kidneys and put a stop to all the pains."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Morse had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Indigestion.

Indigestion follows rye bread only because of the yeast in it. The temperature of the intestines is the most favorable for producing a renewed "rising" of the yeast, and through this chemical process the intestines are poisoned, and other foods, notably the acids from fruits and some vegetable, add to the trouble.

Lime Starvation Causes Tuberculosis

The Medical Record (New York) of December 18, 1903, contains an article on "The Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis, Based on the Assumption That the Dietetic Cause of the Disease is Lime Starvation." Dr. John F. Russell, who says: "The condition which is recognized as preceding the active development of tuberculosis in the adult may be considered as due to lime starvation, and among inorganic substances lime salts appear to be of special physiological importance. But if the salts are not in organic combination it is difficult to suppose that the cells can appropriate them for food."

Years of widespread use confirm us in the belief that the success of Beckman's Alternative in cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is due in large measure to its content of lime, so combined with other ingredients as to be easily assimilated by the cells.

Doubtless this has had much to do with the results obtained in many cases of these affections, which appear to have yielded to Beckman's Alternative.

As it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Your druggist will order it for you or you can send direct to Beckman Laboratories, Philadelphia.

An Easy Way to Increase Weight

Good Advice for Thin Folks.

The trouble with most thin folks who wish to gain weight is that they insist on drugging their stomach or stuffing it with greasy foods; rubbing on useless "flesh creams," or following some foolish physical culture stunt, while the real cause of thinness goes untouched. You cannot get fat until your digestive tract assimilates the food you eat.

There is a preparation known to reliable druggists almost everywhere which seemingly embodies the missing elements needed by the digestive organs to help them convert food into rich, fat-laden blood. This modern treatment is called Sargol and has been termed the greatest of flesh-builders. Sargol aids through re-constructive, re-constructive powers to relax the stomach and intestines to literally soak up the fattening elements of your food and pass them into the blood, where they are carried to the starved, broken-down cells and tissues of your body. You can readily picture what result this amazing transformation should produce as with increased weight the cheeks fill out, hollows about neck, shoulders and bust disappear and from 10 to 20 pounds of solid, healthy flesh is added to the body. Sargol is absolutely harmless, inexpensive, efficient. All leading druggists of this vicinity have it and will refund your money if you are not satisfied, as per the guarantee found in every package.

NOTE:—Sargol is recommended only as a flesh builder and while excellent results in cases of nervous indigestion, etc., have been reported care should be taken about using it unless a gain of weight is desired.—Advertisement.

The Heart of Night Wind

A Story of the Great Northwest

Copyright by Dodd, Mead and Company.

And then, two days after Miss Ordway's return, the young commissioner and the Portland lawyer got off the train at Toledo and were driven out to the Yellow Pines. They bore for Hampden the wildest agony of his strong life in the revelation of his goddess.

They were closeted together the whole of the night in the Yellow Pines office and it was a strenuous night for the two strangers, for Hampden was a man to fear in his rages.

At first they held him by main force, and later by argument and reason.

"Fight," said the lawyer in the pink dawn, "fight like hell! And bluff. It's your only chance."

"Fight?" snarled Hampden hoarsely, "what for? This damned driver has let her get the originals of these letters of mine about the three timber claims in 7-10, and they alone'd put me behind bars! You're the damndest ass I ever seen!"

And the man's small, red eyes glared at his accomplice with the murder-lust. But the commissioner had some spirit himself and came back with defiance.

"Fools! We're two together. It was from you she got her first knowledge of the game. She fooled her first suspicions out of you in her horseback rides. She told me so—that's how you took her in on the deals, she said."

Hampden groaned and flung his head in his arms on the pine table. "All right," he said at last, "I'll fight."

But with the last sight of the buckboard bouncing down the hill road with his visitors to catch the early train back to Salem, a light grew up in his heavy face that would have puzzled that astute man, the Portland lawyer.

"Yes, by God!" he said in a voice thick with menace. "I'll fight! And I'll make a fight that'll be remembered all along the coast!"

CHAPTER XXV.

Fire in the Forest.

The next day was the ninth of August. The thermometer, hanging on the eastern side of Sandry's office, went slowly up to 108 by two o'clock.

Ma sat on the east porch in her little rocker and Siletz braided her mats on the step, while Poppy Ordway watched her from a cushion against the wall. The donkey tooted faintly at the upper cutting, and from time to time the dinky engine trundled its high-piled flats down the little track to the railway in the slough's mouth. The men were all out and the summer silence hung upon the cook-shack and the deserted cabins, empty ever since their former occupants had turned their coats for Hampden's two-year contracts.

Suddenly Cossnah, lying on the step, got up and sniffed the air. Siletz looked at him, her fingers arrested. Then he sat down on his haunches, threw up his muzzle, and began to bay, a melancholy, lonesome sound.

"Hush," said Siletz, "hush, Cossnah!" And she, too, lifted her head after the fashion of wild things, smelling the sultry atmosphere.

"Mother!" she cried swiftly, "it's fire!"

The general creaked up and hurried to the steps, but already Siletz was off and running up the valley toward the cutting. When she reached the donkey Sandry was standing beside it, but the girl passed him without a glance, running to where the foreman set a choker.

"John!" she cried, "John—there's a fire on the west ridge!"

Every man within hearing dropped his work instantly and stood up.

"Call in the men," said Daily as he passed the donkey-engineer, "and send 'em along. We'd better all go. Mr. Sandry. Tain't likely it's much, but we go to stomp it out, whatever 'tis. I hear a lookin' far 'em."

They all trailed down the valley on a dogtrot. It took them the better part of an hour, but when they went down there was not a spark left alight.

"What do you suppose started it, John?" asked Sandry.

"Oh, some damned little college snipe from Corvallis, likely, with a gun and a cigarette. Or maybe it was some camper stayin' overnight on the ridge—some greenhorn. An' it's mighty dry—mighty dry."

They went back to the cutting, though every jack of them lifted up his eyes from time to time to the ridges around. At supper the loggers discussed the forest fires of other years, the topic opened by the incident. It was a close night with a dark sky, though the heat had given way to the sweet coolness of the coast under the mysterious ocean wind, and Sandry from his old seat at table looked out at the western ridge.

"John!" he cried, rising suddenly, "it's broken out again!"

Sure enough. Against the upper darkness little red tongues flicked fitfully up and the men, white and Indian, tumbled out of the cook-shack. It was twelve o'clock when they turned in, and Sandry was puzzled.

The next day nothing happened. Then at dawn of the day following the camp awoke to see a fine, fairy-white haze all through the valley and the crest of the west ridge, for half a mile, sending up fanciful pearl plumes in the soft morning. This time it had gained a start and the camp turned out in earnest.

Scattering fires were burning slowly in the lower growth, all linked together by creeping trails. It was as if a light wind had blown in the latter part of the night, bearing a brand here and there. Daily set his men in groups, all along the burning strip, and they attacked it with spade and shovel, ax and blanket wet from the five-gallon oilcans they had filled at the slough and carried up the mountain with heavy labor. This time they worked unceasingly all day, going down to dinner in relays, and night found them a weary crew with grimy faces, while a narrow, black scar ran along the high shoulder of the ridge.

"John," said Sandry solemnly, "that is no college boy with his cigarette. Could it be Hampden?"

The foreman turned upon the owner.

"You hain't a real westerner, yet, Mr. Sandry," he said with a smile. "You think Hampden's reek his yella pine—as fine timber as there is in the whole state? He'd bury th' hatchet an' come fight with us like a brother first."

"Then what's setting those fires?—for it looks as if they are being set—My God! Look there! There's another!"

A merry, red eye winked and leaped and died, to leap again across the early twilight at the valley's head.

"That's damned close to our cutting!" cried Daily starting down the mountain on a sliding run.

And that last fire, burning strongly where no brand could have dropped, even with a wind, marked the beginning of such a time of anxiety, of fear that grew and mounted to heart-stilling panic, of superhuman labor, as Sandry, a year before, could not have believed possible—a time to be long remembered in the coast country.

Daily sent Siletz on Black Bolt to Toledo, to ask for a dozen men to help in the fight.

He abandoned the one on the ridge, for fire goes down hill slowly, and set his men again in the valley.

Daily abandoned the one on the ridge, for fire goes down hill slowly, and set his men again in the valley.

Here the bed of dry needles was thick and rotted into ideal condition for that most treacherous of fires, the

groundfire, which gets into the powderlike mat of packed deadfall and creeps higher and thither like a thief in the night, breaking out, unexpectedly, an unseen, insidious enemy.

There had been two years of unusually heavy foliage and the rains had ceased early, so that the time was opportune for a forest fire.

The timber at the valley's head was smaller than on the hills, consequently there was more undergrowth, little, young pines and birch, slender and branching, each one of which was a resolute torch ready to flare into splendid kindling for its greater brothers. These it was that took the fire running with the little wind, skimming swiftly along the surface, catching here and there a sapling, which in its turn, if it was not felled quickly by a blow from a broadax, reached up for the lower branches of some full-grown pine. That was the thing they fought against, these men of the timberlands, for if once a great pine took up the fire with a rear like the sea in a hollow cavern, it would spread to another and another in the close packed, swaying canopy of the forest and the horror of the country would start broadcast on a track of ruin—a crown fire, than which there is no greater menace, for a horse cannot outrun it, and man if the hills are thickly wooded, is almost powerless against it.

Ma Daily, passing her interminable tin cups of coffee—she had brought a great iron kettle and boiled it over a fire on the ground—stopped before Anworthy, the curly headed boy of whom she was very fond, with a hand on his shoulder.

"I'm mighty glad to see you, son," she said kindly, and the young scapegoat had the grace to blush.

ANURIC:

The Newest Discovery in Chemistry.

This is a recent discovery of Doctor Pierce, who is head of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute at Buffalo, N. Y. Experiments at Dr. Pierce's hospital for several years proved that there is no other eliminator of uric acid that can be compared to it. For those easily recognized symptoms of inflammation—as backache, scalding urine and frequent urination, as well as sediment in the urine, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, it is simply wonderful how surely "Anuric" acts. The best of results are always obtained in cases of acute rheumatism in the joints, in gravel and gout, and invariably the pains and stiffness which so frequently and persistently accompany the disease rapidly disappear.

THE WOMEN'S COUNCIL

Edited by MRS. ABBIE HELMS

"Let Us Meet and Counsel Together"

THE DIGNITY OF LABOR.

(Given at the Prayer Service, Congregational Church.)

It seems to me that the idle woman of today has no place in the scheme of things. What woman has her greatest respect for the woman who toils, the woman who serves, the woman whose hours are idle and whose thought is but up and down the ladder of selfish gratification? The best of us today is not concerned with class distinctions, which came upon the world before the dawn of reason, but with the feeling of the brotherhood of man and the sisterhood of woman.

If distinctions are made between so-called classes of women, there may be fault upon faults and the lines may be imaginary. There is one common source of life—one common goal—and the women who serve are those who are giving great good to those who are served. I believe all good thinking women of today serve others in some capacity every day of their lives. They consider the day ill spent where no service for others has been rendered. If this service means the keeping of the world for the woman who pays a wage therefor, is there more dignified work for women? And is it not appreciated at its full value? This is not a question of value, but of the good to be done, perhaps this is a good time to begin, giving the dignity of labor to woman's hands more and more of our appreciation.

CONVENTION OF WISCONSIN WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

President—Mrs. Henry M. Youmans, Waukesha.
Vice President—Miss Zona Gale, Portage.
Second Vice President—Mrs. Victor Berge, Milwaukee.
Third Vice President—Mrs. J. A. Strathairn, South Kaukauna.
Secretary—Mrs. A. J. Rogers, Milwaukee.
Treasurer—Mrs. E. E. Robinson, Kaukauna.

This meeting is to be held in Milwaukee beginning Thursday, November 18, and closing on Saturday, Nov. 20, with luncheon at the Hotel Astor. A fine program has been prepared and eminent speakers from all over the state are to be in attendance. The president will talk on the value of Federal work on Thursday afternoon.

On Thursday evening the president Mrs. Theodora W. Youmans will give an address on "The New York Campaign at the Council Chambers. City and State." Mrs. J. A. Strathairn will also speak on "Civic Responsibility."

There will also be an informal reception at the Milwaukee Art Society on Friday evening where an exhibition of pictures and statuary has been arranged especially for the entertainment of the visitors. All meetings are open to the public.

In connection with this Milwaukee convention meeting, the following notice in regard to the Wisconsin suffrage movement may be timely and appropriate. Mrs. Meta L. Berger, wife of former Congressman Victor L. Berger, and who has been elected president of the Milwaukee school board, the first woman to be elected to this responsible position in any large American city. Mrs. Berger has served on the Milwaukee school board for over a decade and has been a member of committees of courses of instruction, building finance and complaints.

The aim of the president of the Milwaukee school board, Mrs. Berger, will be, as it has been since my election to membership on the board six years ago, to work for the greatest good to the greatest number; to give the best and broadest chance for educational development to all the children of the people. I want our boys and girls to have every chance that should be theirs. In order that the children shall have this chance, I am open to conviction on all matters in connection with the schools and education.

Mrs. Berger is the wife of a first Socialist ever elected to Congress.

ORDER EASTERN STAR STUDY CLASS.

This club holds a meeting on Thursday, November 18, with Mrs. Wilber Carie and Mrs. W. H. Ashcroft as hosts. The meeting is in the nature of a patriotic meeting and will open with the song "America." The answer to the call will be given with the personal choice of a national hymn. Mrs. Carie will give the history of our flag and Mrs. Ashcroft will give a review of the book, "A Man Without a Country."

ART LEAGUE.

This club will begin its regular season study on the "History of Architecture" with a meeting at the Art League on Friday, November 19. The program is as follows: 7:30—Cathedral at Milan, Siena and Orvieto. 8:30—Miss Alden Dodge's Palace Venice. 9:30—Miss Alden Dodge's Palazzo Vecchio, Loggia dei Lanzi. 10:30—Palazzo Pubblico, Siena. 11:30—Palazzo Pubblico, Siena. 12:30—Pavia. 1:30—Mrs. O. D. Bates. Current Events—Mrs. P. A. Taylor.

PHILOMATHIAN CLUB.

This organization meets with Mrs. A. Thompson 612 Fourth Ave., on Saturday, November 20. The program is as follows: 7:30—Economy or Distinguishing Between Our Needs and Our Wants. 8:30—Reading. 9:30—Mrs. Jenkins. Display of Christmas fancy work. Music.

DENTAL CLINIC.

If there is one thing that the Civic League points to with pride, it is the dental inspection work and the dental clinic which they were instrumental in organizing. They realized the fact that it is more and more being recognized among physicians, that the decay of the teeth has very large bearing upon the health of the individual, and that a diseased tooth becomes an active center for spreading infection through the body. It is for this reason that the dental clinic has been so successful. The dental clinic has been so successful in securing donations, and they got together about $500 in money, which was expended in an equipment for the dental clinic. The dentists of the city were all interested, and have been their earnest co-operation to the work. Without them it would be impossible. The city commission donated the free use of a room in the City Hall, and here the equipment was installed and an office fitted up for doing dental work. It was first opened for use in September, 1914.

The following report was read by the chair of the dental committee at the City League on their last regular meeting:

"We have made an attempt to secure a record of the work done, but as all dentists did not make uniform accurate totals. The following is estimated at about seventy-five per cent of the work accomplished:

"Filling last year were 195; extractions, 100, and cleanings, 31; extractions of children attended to, 86; number of children given half a day is a month each to the dental clinic. These nine men have been successful and painstaking in their service. However, we cannot be expected to carry on this work indefinitely, and it is the desire of the committee to find some other way of carrying on this free clinic, and by next fall we hope to have some plan to present to the City Council to relieve the dentists of this care."

"Our regular inspection for school children will be held on the 17th and 22nd of this month. It is intended as a means of preventing tooth trouble among children. Not to bring causes children to lose teeth, but to prevent this. This could be understood if the parents only understood the importance of taking care of their teeth. Mrs. Percy Minger, chairman of the committee.

"The public are cordially asked to inspect the work of the dental clinic on any Tuesday or Friday forenoon, and they will be interested to see the children waiting patiently, quite with the fact that the work should be done. The public also seem very grateful for this aid in saving the teeth of their children."

The visiting nurse gives her forenoon on that day to attendance at the dental clinic. The plan is to assist in the dental work, and to have a city dentist, preferably a woman, with much the same duties as the visiting nurse in the city health.

Some of the leading surgeons of the city have agreed to cooperate with the visiting nurse in performing free dental work on eye, ear, nose or throat, among the children. Perhaps this may lead to a broader enterprise at a later date.

Meeting of the National Congress of Women.

This meeting will be held at San Francisco during this month. Lady Aberdeen, president of the International Council of Women, will preside. The visit of Lord and Lady Aberdeen to America will be the occasion of a series of meetings, receptions and banquets. They will be of peculiar interest and value. They are known throughout the world for their great and noble work they have done for the poor, in the countries where they have lived.

To those who have followed civic betterment work the campaign against tuberculosis and crowded and insanitary tenements; Lady Aberdeen and her husband, who have been crusaders for pure water, playgrounds, child welfare centers, and open markets for home products, are masterpieces of social work. Tuberculosis has rapidly decreased, infant mortality is lessening and there was the awakening of new civic ideals in Ireland. This was largely the work of the Women's National Health Association, founded by Lady Aberdeen.

The war came and the country's funds were needed for war purposes. Normal contributions were stopped, and the various institutions are now facing extinction because of lack of funds. It is a broad, humanitarian work that is being threatened and it should not be interrupted. The ravages of war are decimating the young men of the country, and it is of the first importance to safeguard the lives of the little children. To raise funds for this work, the Aberdeen Fund of America has been instituted, and at the request of those responsible for its organization, Lord and Lady Aberdeen have consented to assist in every way possible to aid the work in America.

One of the methods of raising funds will be by means of lectures and public meetings.

Lady Aberdeen gives an address before the Women's Clubs on "Woman's Work in the World" and a lecture for public meetings on "The Triumphs of Civic Awakening."

One of these addresses might be secured for Janesville if we had a large enough organization to stand back of it. When the Women's clubs of the city form a Federation, they can enjoy many of these good things, which are not available for small clubs.

Sewing Classes for Women.

The afternoon sewing classes for women, held at the various school buildings, have proven very popular and are a great help to the housewife who wishes to make her own clothes. There are many ladies knowing how to do plain sewing, but who had no opportunity to learn the art of cutting and fitting properly. These classes, coming as they do in the afternoon, have made a convenient way to obtain this knowledge. So that the busy woman, who wants to learn "just how" has been quick to take advantage of these classes. The fact that these class rooms on "Sewing Day" will show that an interesting kind of work is being done. Pretty gowns, blouses and jackets are being made, and the enthusiastic pupils declare that this is one of the best ways to cut down the "High Cost of Living." Most of the attendants at the afternoon classes are married women, who might not be able to be away from home duties to attend the evening classes. The teachers are "just lovely," the work is very interesting, and the instruction is given by the Board of Industrial Education has done a very practical thing in starting this system of afternoon classes.

Long Beach City Market. There are many Janesville people residing at Long Beach, California, that one sometimes considers that place as a winter annex of the Lower City. Word has been received from Long Beach friends, who state that a city market has recently been opened there which is proving a great success. In many places, where such an institution is established, according to reports of the city officials in planning and supervising its operation.

It proves a great convenience, both to the farmer and the housewife, as the market can be reached without a house, to house canvass and the latter has a chance to buy fruit and vegetables at first hand. During the present fall there was great quantities of fruit, apples and cranberries rotting on the ground for lack of buyers and at the present time apples can not be bought on the market at less than from $1.75 to $2.00 per bushel. A market where the fruit could be disposed of directly to families would have helped out the farmer and given to many housekeepers a chance to buy fruit in quantities at very practical and convenient prices. Such a plan is very practical and efficient if conducted in a proper manner and as the women of the family buy fully three-fourths of the supplies of the home, for such an undertaking, why is not a public market especially during the summer months feasible for Janesville?

CLUB FOR BUSINESS GIRLS.

There is much interest felt in the way that different cities care for the young girls. How a home is supplied to them, how comfortable, at a reasonable cost. This subject has been in operation in Minneapolis for three years, so that it has passed the experimental stage. It was organized by the Women's Welfare League and is under their direct supervision.

The Linden Club for girls is the result of work done by the Lodging House Committee, appointed by the Women's Welfare League three years ago.

The Linden Club Association has acquired a two-story brick building located at Fifteenth Street and Linden Avenue. At present the building occupies one of the brick buildings in the city. The building is a two-story frame building, it was opened September 1st, with accommodations for eighty girls, with the opening of the second brick building the Club will afford accommodations for one hundred and fifty girls. The Linden Club is located within walking distance of many of the factories and all of the large stores—two blocks from the Hawthorne Park.

Members of the Club can secure room and board for from $3.00 to $4.50 per week. This includes a single bed breakfast, dinner at night, and three meals on Sunday. Rooms are provided for sewing, also for pressing and laundry work. There are also screening porches, comfortable parlors for the use of members and their guests. All rooms are outside rooms, simply but tastefully furnished. The large airy dining room with its artistic tile floor will also be used for recreation purposes, and for social and pleasure of the members. A tennis court is part of the recreation equipment throughout and bath and laundry accommodations provided on each floor. Good wholesome food is provided at all meals.

This club is a self-supporting, non-sectarian and is governed by a council selected from among the girls who cooperate with the officers and matrons. In a word, the privileges of the club are especially adapted to the needs of the business girls.

It may be helpful to Janesville club workers to learn of these different projects, so that when the time comes that something in that line may be attempted, they may know something about them.

CITY MISSIONARY SOCIETY.

The Federated Missionary Societies of that church held their annual meeting Friday, Nov. 12th, which day was set aside by the National Board of Day of Prayer.

The first meeting at 2:00 p. m. was held at the Presbyterian church, with Mrs. G. E. Parisee as leader; there were thirty women present, representing the various churches of the city.

The nominating committee reported the names of the proposed officers as follows:

President—Mrs. J. C. Hazen.
Vice Pres.—Miss Louise Hansen.
Sec. Treas.—Mrs. A. Malmberg.
The officers were unanimously elected.

Mrs. Parisee, in her opening remarks, emphasized the power of prayer, giving St. Augustine as an example of what a devout mother's prayers may accomplish. She told of the sufferings and persecutions of the Armenians during the present war.

Mrs. E. O. Hoffmeister gave an interesting talk about the German Lutheran Mission in India, its beginning and the difficulties of obtaining funds for carrying on its work during the war.

Mrs. J. R. Nichols, Mrs. Horn, companion, sang the beautiful selection, "I Think When I Hear That Sweet Story of Old." The meeting of the next period was held at 3:00 o'clock at the Y. M. C. work in China, relating some personal experiences in Tien Tsin.

The third period, at the Congregational church, was held at 7:30 p. m. Subject, "Girls Here and There." Mrs. Ewing, leader.

Mrs. Ewing gave the opening remarks, and asked everyone present to consider themselves not as spectators, but as workers. Prayer was considered from the standpoint of a High school girl.

Prayer should consist of giving thanks for home, friends, school, and church.

The confession of prayer should be—forgive me.

Consecration—I will try.

Communion—telling, listening and waiting.

We pray to God and God gives us a chance.

This is often out of sight. Too many of us expect God to give us everything we ask, when the fact of the matter is that he gives us a chance to answer our own prayers. One lady spoke of the giving the women's hands more appreciation and asked that women go three-fourths of the way in making the lonely girl and woman feel at home among us.

Mrs. Millar spoke on the "Lonely Girl," showing that we were responsible for the lonely girls in our city.

Miss Ada Lewis gave the selection, "Lord of the Morning," which was sung by the ladies. Mrs. Richards led in prayer for the lonely girl and woman in our midst.

The afternoon was crowded with good thought and good fellowship, and we hope for many more such meetings.

MRS. A. MALMBERG,
Secretary of Federation.

MOTHERS ARE CHAMPS IN ATHLETIC EVENTS

In Three Branches of Sports Mothers Held Titles Among Women.

This is the year of mothers as athletic champs. In three branches of sports mothers who divide their time between play, household duties and the raising of children, have triumphed over single women.

Mrs. Harold Almet, Chicago, mother of two, is national woman champion trapezist.

Mrs. W. F. Vanderbeck, Philadelphia, mother of two, is national woman golf champion.

Mrs. Thomas Bundy, San Francisco, mother of one, is woman tennis champion of the Pacific coast and picked to be national champion when she meets Miss Mollie Hurst, Norwegian, who won the title while Mrs. Bundy was in temporary retirement.

Mrs. Bundy was formerly Miss May and she won the national title several times. Her husband and Maurice McLaughlin held the men's double championship.

The career of Mrs. Almet is unusual. She has been a trapezist since her hands until the latter part of May. In less than two months she was champion.

The Grand American handicap was won by Mrs. Bundy when she broke 25 straight birds, then 21 of the next 25. Later she broke 23 in a row.

In the past six weeks she has twice beaten L. B. Clarke, Grand American champion. She has won two club championships and a cup offered by the Sportsmen's club.

Mrs. Almet says she took up trapezist to find an outdoor sport she could enjoy with her husband and children. She and Mrs. Almet shot at a club where their children play while a target event is being held.

Since I took up shooting I have lost interest in tennis and cards," says this unusual woman. "I have found that if housework is systematically arranged mothers can find time for outdoor games."

WHITEWATER YOUNG COUPLE WEDDED IN JANESVILLE

Miss Alfreda Tucker and Robert W. Cresson Married at Home of Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Catchpole.

Monday, Nov. 15, at 6 o'clock, Miss Alfreda Tucker and Robert W. Cresson, both of Whitewater, were united in marriage at the home of Rev. and Mrs. L. G. Catchpole, 206 Madison street, Janesville.

The ring service was used and Rev. L. G. Catchpole performed the ceremony. The bride was attended by his brother, Philip Cresson, and the groom by his brother, John Cresson.

The bride wore a pretty gown of white batiste and lace, and carried an arm bouquet of bridal roses.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Cresson of Whitewater and is a popular and rising young woman. The bride is well and favorably known.

Mrs. James Maxwell for several years. After the ceremony the hosts served a three course dinner.

Mrs. and Mrs. Cresson will be at home in Whitewater after a short wedding tour and a visit in Sterling, Illinois.

Whitewater, Nov. 17.—There was a very interesting mothers' meeting yesterday afternoon at the city hall, and a goodly number listened to a very excellent program. Papers were given by Mrs. J. C. Cox, Mrs. A. E. Hanson, Mrs. E. R. Kelly and Mrs. R. H. Dixon on the cooperation of mothers with the school, etc. The first and the second grade dramatized two selections, "Red Ripped" and "The Old Woman and the Pigeon." A quiet from the eighth grade sang a selection on "Howard Lean spoke 'Irving's Tribute to Mothers'."

The pupils of the high school and normal school were entertained yesterday in the morning and afternoon by listening to an Armenian, who told his experiences. How he was drafted into the Turkish army, fought against the Russians and was captured and put in prison, and how he escaped. He dressed some of the scholars up in costume and performed wedding ceremonies making his entertainment very interesting and instructive. Many outside the school attended.

The Whitewater fire department gave a banquet at Woodman hall last evening in celebration of the new fire truck recently purchased. The members of the water committee, Editors F. R. Bloodgood and R. K. Coe and several others besides the members of the department, making about sixty present. The menu consisted of oyster stew, roast duck, dressing and cranberry sauce, celery mashed potatoes, peas, olive oil, pie, cheese and coffee, and followed by the group, after which Chief D. F. Zull called on W. R. Rader, T. M. Blackman, Dr. Midgley Attorney, E. Johnson, Editors F. R. Bloodgood and R. K. Coe.

Ed Pollard for short address. After a good social time the party broke up at eight o'clock.

Mrs. G. Keppel entertained the Milwaukee Clinch club at her home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. G. Mills has returned home, after a visit at Brodhead, Edgerton and Janesville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kelly motored to Genesee yesterday for a short visit. Sherman and John Duffin started on a "hike" this morning at five o'clock with Madison and Edgerton. They will see how well they stand the way before deciding how the trip home will be made.

The regular missionary meeting of the Ladies' Union was held yesterday afternoon at the Congregational church. A report of the annual convention of the Women's Board of Missions of the World, held in Milwaukee, was given by Mrs. J. C. Cox, which also included the report of Mrs. J. C. Cox, these two ladies being delegates. Miss Caroline E. Childers, from St. Louis, Mo., then gave a very interesting talk on her work there.

GERMAN PROFESSORS WILL GO TO TURK UNIVERSITY

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, Nov. 17.—The negotiations which have been on foot for some time with the object of founding the University of Constantinople with a considerable staff of German professors have been concluded, and seventeen chairs in the university are to be filled from Berlin. Several of the new professors already speak Turkish, while the others are expected to master the language at the earliest possible moment.

The German faculty include the following branches: Philosophy, Pedagogy, Psychology, History of Ancient Oriental Nations, Methodology of History, Geography, Geology, Botany, Zoology, Chemistry, Public Jurisprudence, Civil Law, Philology and Comparative Semitic Philology.

WANDERING BOB HAS SOME NEW VAGARIES

WRITES FROM LAIR OF LENROOT ON MATTERS POLITICAL.

State Affairs Gossip

Goos Back Into Ancient History to Show Stephenson Has Told Nothing New in His Autobiography.

N. B.—This is one of a series of political articles written exclusively for the Gazette.—Editor.

By Bob Acres.

Superior, Wis., Nov. 16.—I am up here in the fair of Congressman Lenroot. I knew the congressman when he was a stenographer, even before he really practiced law, before he became one of "Little Bob's" trusted henchmen. Before he went down to Madison, took his typewriter orders drawn up in La Follette's private office, and maneuvered and manipulated that nineteenth-century convention when the conservative republicans had "Bob" beat to a frazzle when it came to legitimate delegates and the fourth ward of Milwaukee was allowed no representation and something quivered an eyelash when he refused to recognize Jeffris and led the steam roller brigade driving all true republicans from the gymnasium convention.

Well, he received his reward, and I want to say that right now he is some peanuts up in this neck of the woods anything you may say to the contrary. Lenroot has never been in 1904, but I am told he does not deliver them again in 1916. Time does make a difference and some people have a decided change in the hand. Writing on the wall, particularly if they have a nice soft seat to high or low matter how hard the political wind blows. There are a lot of others who look at matters the same way as Lenroot does and they are not far wrong.

By the way, while I have not been favored with one of former Senator Isaac Stephenson's autobiographies as yet, may not be, in fact, still the real thing. I have read a few of them, and the state proves it is most interesting reading. The only thing that I can see that Stephenson has done is to put into cold type matters and facts political that we have all known for years but never had the exact proof of it. Stephenson was disgruntled when Quaries went to the senate in 1909 instead of himself. Really I think the old map should have been given the place then. It would have saved the state a lot of experimental laws that will take years to eradicate from the statutes if he had. I urged it at that time, but he has not been known more of politics that counted than a pool layman and Quaries went to Washington and Stephenson back to Marinette to plan for "Revenge" (capital R), and while it cost him some hundreds of thousands of dollars in cash, as he relates, he succeeded. How well he succeeded is known now by the years of ultra expensive progressive regime in Madison and the increase of taxes.

Of course I do not blame Stephenson for all this, but he augmented it by securing the election of La Follette in the following campaign and then helped him to continue in power until he forgot his creator.

Of course he repented when he was deserted in time of his dire need when he ran for the senate, by the man he had created, but it was too late. The state has suffered, as he did, and the only revenge he could obtain was by publishing his part in the iniquity of selling the republican party out for gold to gain revenge upon those whom he thought should have honored him in his personal desires in 1899. Well he has done it, but he has told the public nothing new. They understood it all, only the details that were lacking in the general story.

This is a strange world and we have many strange bedfellows as it were. I am talking to a rampant, swearing, lawless, fighting La Follette man a few days ago up in a little backwoods town that has a majority of the sturdy sons of Norway on its poll list. He stone have eaten fire and drank brimstone for a son of his who was a sailor and who lost his job because of the provisions of La Follette's sea-man's bill had changed him round. He was just as bitter the other way, but he did not know what the other way was.

That's the trouble. La Follette has his organized pick and while it is gradually slipping away from him, he supports the Husting-Aylward-Davis democrats have promised him, the opposition is not centered on any one language. La Follette is a politician. A man who is not afraid of man, devil or beast and can invade La Follette's lair and defy him in his own language. La Follette is a politician. A man who is not afraid of man, devil or beast and can invade La Follette's lair and defy him in his own language. La Follette is a politician. A man who is not afraid of man, devil or beast and can invade La Follette's lair and defy him in his own language.

I want to say to the voters of Rock County that the favorite son idea for a candidate against La Follette is a thing to die a slow and death. The community that presents a man for the job of aspirant for United States senator must pick out a man who has real worth for himself alone and for any political generalship. He must be a man who is not, has not and will not be picked up in any political intrigue, past, present or future. He must be known throughout the state for his real worth as a man and an exponent of good sound business. A politician is not wanted in this race. If the voters expect to defeat La Follette at the primaries next year, they are credulous, about their real efficiency in any cause. Do not misunderstand me. I believe in their work. I think their labors to help educate the people of the state in the wasteful expenditures, not only in the university but in every department of the state government have been most beneficial, but still the question of their legal status bothers lots of people.

The Home Rule and Tax Payers' League can not pull La Follette's opponent through. Until the exact status of the suit is settled by the supreme court of the state as to their legal standing, there are a lot of people who are credulous, about their real efficiency in any cause. Do not misunderstand me. I believe in their work. I think their labors to help educate the people of the state in the wasteful expenditures, not only in the university but in every department of the state government have been most beneficial, but still the question of their legal status bothers lots of people.

Next to Coach Speedy Rush probably the greatest factor in the pronounced success of the Princeton football team this season is Right Halfback Dave Tibbott. Dave has sported in the limelight since the season opened. A terror while carrying the ball he has been even more terrifying to all his rivals because of his great kicking.

Scott won first place among the trotters and Russel Boy gained premier honors in the placing division.

Every time Jim McAleer runs up to Cleveland from his home in Huntington rumors are spread broadcast that he is going to be a hen on a hot tin roof. It happened last summer when McAleer came to Cleveland just after Somers had disposed of Birmingham, his manager, and the report was current that McAleer would take the management of the team. At that time McAleer announced that he was out of baseball for all time to come, and there is known reason for him to change his mind. The former manager of the Nationals has been decidedly fortunate in some investments he has made, is better fixed

FOR RUSSIAN Y. M. C. A.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Petrograd, Nov. 17.—A full-length statue of Lincoln, with an interesting history, has been unveiled in the hall of the Rev. Franklyn Gaylord, head of the Russian Young Men's Christian Association's work.

The story of the statue is this: Among his pupils Gaylord's callers the other day was Senator Anatole Feodorovitch Koni, a member of the Imperial Council, as well as the Senate, who is just celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of his public service. He is a staunch friend of the Y. M. C. A., and Mr. Gaylord was one of those asked to speak at the celebration of his anniversary. It seems that the conversation between the two men turned on Lincoln, and the subject of the statue was introduced.

surprise, Mr. Gaylord received the Lincoln figure from Senator Kent with a polite note requesting its acceptance as a token of friendship. The senator in 1865, Senator Kent bought the statue and had given it a place of honor in his home for fifty years. During the Senator's student days, Lincoln was immensely popular with the progressive youth of Russia. The cause Alexander II. as an emancipator. Many of these statues, which were well executed in hard, polished plaster, three-quarter size, were sold among Russian students and citizens. Doubtless here and there in the homes of some of the old families in Russia, similar statues of tribute to Lincoln may be found.

The present rules in the National League which force every club to have a roster to twenty-one men during a regular playing season is to be brought at the coming meeting of the organization. The principal factors to this limit are the New York and Boston clubs. McGraw claims at the fact that he could not carry more than twenty-one men cause the British last, while Stallings has a few more than he had to carry. A few more players he would like on the pennant. Just what the league will do in the matter remains to be seen, but most of the club owners would like to keep expenses down to the minimum.

Chief Bender, Christy Mathewson, Cy Young, Fred Crandall and Harry Davis are the players who are touring the country for a meeting trap shooting clubs in the fall. It is needless to say that these players are being paid for their services, probably by some ammunition company. There is no concern or gun manufacturer, for these players never spend their money on guns. It is a jaunt of that character.

the minor leagues are to adapt to the new conditions compel the small organizations to take such steps, or more likely to have each league decide just how much it can afford to pay. There will, of course, be a heavy contest by the players, and they will win one of two things, a reduction in salaries or closing the gates. When the players realize this state of affairs they are apt to kick over the traces. Ball players have had the benefits of the new system, but when after the sport is a slump, and they have come to know they must bear their burden, economy measures and conditions are necessary.

The taste of the cigarette—according to a leading tobacco journal—is up to the smoker. But there are other qualities that you should look for in the cigarettes that you are going to stick to for your steady smoke. Here are a couple of tests that may help wisely between different kinds of cigarettes.

The first test, for coolness, which means more comfort to the throat, is to tongue-light a cigarette, ordinary puffing a smoke—for a few seconds. Let a cloud of smoke—to make the second test, is not sufficient to burn your tongue for a moment around the cigarette. If the cigarette is contained in just it "floats" now blow out a high grade of mild cigarette, combined in just the right proportion both to your throat and your tongue.

COOL and your tongue.

On the other hand, if the cigarette contains inferior grades of tobacco, the strands of smoke at the tip of your throat, shipping along at the tip of your throat, or that "sandpaper" tickle in your throat.

Test number two—How do you feel after smoking a lot?

If the tobacco in the cigarette included a correct proportion of mild grades—a lot of the various grades have been properly melted by age—and if they have been blended as a result, the unpleasant qualities in each of the different tobaccoes, you will be able to smoke it easily whenever you feel like it, without feeling any effect in the throat without feeling any effect in the throat.

But with another cigarette in which blend is less skillful, even though a large proportion of the highest grade of tobacco is used, the end of the road, long towards the end of the road, is likely to have that "sandpaper" smoked too much.

Clip out these tests and try them on Fatima

IF ROAD IS KEPT DRY DURING WINTER MONTHS LITTLE DAMAGE RESULTS

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—If a road is kept dry in winter, road specialists in the Department of Agriculture say cold weather will do it little or no harm. A dry road will not "heave," as it is called. Rock, gravel, sand, even clay contracts slightly on freezing. Water expands when it freezes and a wet road will burst in cold weather just as a water pitcher or pipe will burst when the water is allowed to freeze.

To keep roads in good condition through the winter, the first essential is to see that drainage is good. All ditches must be opened, accumulations of weeds and grass removed, and the surface gone over to smooth out possible water holes. This work should be done early in the fall while the ground is still dry and hard.

After fall rains begin an earth or gravel road should be dragged frequently to prevent ruts, and on macadam surfaces all gravelly places should be filled.

Whenever a thaw is anticipated the cross drains and side ditches should be opened. If the road is softened, the drag should be used and the slush and melting snow removed.

ZIMMERMAN PINE MOTH DOES HEAVY DAMAGE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE)

Washington, D. C., Nov. 17.—Tree owners should be interested to know that the Zimmerman pine moth in its caterpillar stage is the cause of extensive damage to yellow pines in the West and to other pines in the East. This damage can be greatly reduced by care in selecting defective trees for cutting.

Spike-topped, lightning struck, gnarled, branched pines are most likely to be infested. Great numbers of caterpillars hibernate in them. These brood trees should be cut and burned before spring, otherwise the moths, hatching from the caterpillars, will destroy younger and healthier trees.

If the brood trees are cut, the small number of caterpillars probably will be destroyed by woodpeckers. As an instance of the value of this method, a wood lot in Montana covered forty acres and twenty-five per cent of the second growth had been infested for several seasons. After three over-mature trees had been cut and burned, the caterpillars ceased. In another locality 3,000 second growth trees were cut and burned. A survey showed that cutting twenty-four brood trees in a stand of 1,000 would end the trouble.

The Zimmerman caterpillar bores under the bark of the pine, kills portions of the trees, and causes pitch deposits in the wood. Those make the lumber too pitchy for commercial use. The eggs are laid, mostly during July. The proper time to destroy the insect is in the winter.

AUSTRALIAN MINERS WILL RAISE CORPS FOR SERVICE

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Melbourne, Australia, Nov. 17.—The Miners' Union which the Commonwealth government recently offered to raise, equip and send to the front is now in process of formation. It will be composed of three companies enrolled in districts in Australia devoted to mining, and thus probably New South Wales and Queensland will supply one, West Australia another and the three other states the third. The total strength of the force will be about 1,000 men.

The officers of the unit are all to be drawn from the mining specialists in the Commonwealth. There will be a headquarters staff and to this a few geologists will be attached.

New Zealand is also making a departure in recruiting a corps of skilled miners and miners' assistants.

If your Gazette doesn't come, call western Union.

BRIGHTER CHILDREN

Children are probably brighter to-day than a generation ago—but are they stronger? That's a grave question. So many pinched faces, dulled eyes and languid feelings make us wonder if they will ever grow into robust, healthy men and women.

If your children catch colds easily, are tired when rising, lack healthy color, or find studies difficult, give them Scott's Emulsion for one month to enrich their blood and restore the body-forces to healthy action.

Scott's Emulsion is used in private schools. It is not a "patent medicine," simply a highly concentrated oil-food, without alcohol or harmful drugs. It cannot harm; it improves blood; it benefits lungs and strengthens the system. Your druggist has it—refuse substitutes.

Bulgarian Agricultural Wealth Important to Cause of Teuton

"Almost as important as the splendor of the Teutonic powers is the cause of the Teutonic powers is the agricultural wealth that Bulgaria throws into the balance as an aid toward the solution of their provision problem," begins a statement given out today by the National Geographic society.

Bulgaria is essentially a farming nation; its exports consist of its agricultural surpluses, and in good years these surpluses amount to very respectable quantities.

Nearly forty per cent of the country's area is cultivated, of which three-fourths is devoted to cereals, wheat yielding the largest crop and Indian corn and barley coming second and third in importance. Ten per cent of the land is devoted to grazing, but Bulgaria has little importance in the commerce of livestock. Meat products take almost no part in Bulgaria's foreign trade, although large numbers of cattle and sheep have been raised during recent years and considerable attention given to the improvement of the native breeds.

Wheat and Indian corn are the two principal items on Bulgaria's export list. They constitute about one-half of her total foreign sales. Oats, rye and barley are also raised upon the little kingdom's farms for foreign export. These exports of cereals, together with eggs, attar of roses, sheep and lambs' wool, and silk—seventy-five per cent of the total export. The raising of tobacco has come to be an important source of the Bulgarian farmer's revenue, while corn and cotton are the two principal products of the Balkan kingdom, and the manufacture of best sugar has increased rapidly.

Almost the whole of Bulgaria's foreign trade during normal times has been with those countries with whom she is now fighting as an ally—Austria-Hungary, Turkey and Germany. For some strange reason, Belgium was among Bulgaria's best customers. With the exception of this last named nation, the choice of the allies made by the Bulgarians is a choice coinciding with the interest of her foreign trade in the years before the war. Bulgarian corn, tobacco, hides, forest products and cocoons found their best markets among the German and Turkish buyers in days before the war. Of course, Bulgaria's famed products, attar of roses, was largely taken by the French, and enjoyed its own market among the buyers of all the nations of the west. Just such a luxury product, however, would be the first to suffer by reason of the world war, and Bulgaria's trade in the expensive essence of her wonderful rose valleys was bound to fall.

Most every Bulgarian is either a farmer or a politician. As a politician, he writes, officers the army and takes up the various professions. Political Bulgaria lives in the little nation's one pretentious city, Sofia, while everywhere else throughout the country stretch the little peasant holdings. About forty per cent of the country is held as private property and about twenty-four per cent is held in common. The bulk of the holdings owned outright are held in less than one hundred acre plots. Land magnates are prominent in the other agriculture nations of the world, are rarely met with among the folk. Thirty, well-to-do, persistent farmers, descendants of generations of farmers, make up the financial strength and the greater part of the population of Bulgaria.

The Bulgarian peasants are as frugal and as careful in administering their resources as are their German allies. Little is wasted by the peasant family in display or for festival. Herein, Bulgaria contrasts strongly with her western neighbors, the Servians, who are a people fairly imbued with the hedonist's philosophy or glorying by themselves as well as our means allow. The Bulgarian has not enjoyed his freedom as long as the Servians, and his oppression at the hands of the Turks was, likely, more severe than that experienced by the Servians, further removed from the centers of Turkish domination. Thus, the Bulgarian has a sterner, more repressed outlook upon life than his neighbors in the Balkans, and less of a demand for comfort and the joys of living.

Foundations of a manufacturing industry in Bulgaria have hardly been laid and such things as are made are largely produced in the homes of the people, who fill a great many of their needs by home manufacture. This home industry has lost greatly in importance with an increasing stream of imported products from Austria-Hungary, Germany and Great Britain. Where the Bulgarian peasant formerly made his cloth, his tools, his household utensils, is furniture and his clothes, he is now looking more and more to the mills and factories of western civilization. This has had the result of making his exports more and more important to him. As the peasants' demands upon civilization have grown, his interest in supplying his neighbors with the produce of his farms has developed mightily. Therefore, as the Teutonic powers and his neighbor, Turkey, were by far his best customer, he, probably, had strong leaning toward them, over and beyond such political leanings as they have influenced his government's espousal of their cause.

UNREDEEMED LANDS.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, Rock County, ss.

Office of the County Treasurer, Janesville, Wis., Oct. 26, 1915.

AVON VILLAGE, Town 1—Range 10.

HEAVY MEAT EATERS HAVE SLOW KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backache or Have Bladder Trouble—Take Glass of Salts.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally. Says a well-known authority, Meat forms uric acid which excites the kidneys, they become overworked from the strain, get sluggish and fail to filter the waste and poisons from the blood, then we get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, dizziness, sleeplessness and urinary disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of passage or stop eating meat and get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate the kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.
